2018 Nashville Chapter Scholarship Winner

Sydney Jordan Oglesby is a 2018 graduate of Martin Luther King Magnet High School. While at MLK, she had many interests including playing the cello in the school orchestra and participating as a member of the Latin Dance Club. Sydney's passion for dancing reaches outside of school, as she has also been a student at Debbie's School of Dance in Antioch, TN since age 2. She is an active member of the Youth & Young Adults at Alameda Christian Church. In addition, she served as a Girl Scout in Troop 1288 from elementary to high school. Recently, Sydney started her college career as a Freshman at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, TN where she is majoring in Foreign Languages with a concentration in Spanish.

Sydney is the daughter of Dara & Paul Oglesby. Dara started her career with the IRS as a Revenue Agent in June 2001. For the next 6 years, she worked in General Program where she also served as an OJI for several different training groups. Later, she entered into the Frontline Readiness Program as she sought aspirations of management. After she graduated from the program, she went to work as Coordinator in Planning and Special Programs (PSP) from 2007-2008 with the primary responsibility of overseeing the National Research Program. In 2009, she became a permanent manager in General Program SB/SE Field Exam in Nashville, TN. In 2014, Dara started a new journey as Senior Flow Through Specialist for the Central Area, providing technical guidance for partnership law. Since that time, she's taught as classroom instructor for Revenue Agent Pass Through Entity Training. Currently, Dara is detailed to HQ as a Senior Program Analyst in Field Case Selection. She lives in Antioch, TN with her husband of 20 years, Paul and their youngest daughter, Asia who is a sophomore at MLK.

2018 Nashville Chapter Scholarship Winner

David Wilson recently graduated from Goodpasture Christian School with a 4.12 cumulative grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale for taking both advanced placement and dual enrollment courses. In fact, David made the highest possible score of "5" on the advance U.S. History placement test, which is his favorite subject.

David has participated in various extracurricular activities displaying his leadership skills and community service work which include Beta Club, Honor Society, Full Count and Fellowship of Christian Athletes ministries. During 2017-2018, he served as an Assistant Baseball Coach for Goodpasture Middle School team. In May 2018, David was the guest speaker at St. Pius X Classical Academy's Athletic Banquet, where he previously attended school and continues to be an excellent role model for young people.

David is an active member of Lee Chapel A.M.E. Church. As part of his church activities, he is a member of the Youth Usher Board and Acolyte Guild, serving as a Senior Acolyte.

While David is deeply rooted academically and spiritually, he also has excelled in baseball and is attending Columbia State Community College to play college baseball. David has received numerous accolades such as being selected to the 2018 Division II All District, Region and State Baseball Teams. He holds several school records at Goodpasture (most doubles and runs scored in a season). David's career goal is to be a sports broadcaster.

David is the son of David and Lizette Wilson. Lizette has been with the IRS for 34 years and is currently serving on an assignment as the Project Manager for Corporate Shared Support Initiative. Her home position is Staff Assistant to the Director, Senior Commissioner Representative – Continuity of Operations in the Human Capital Organization (HCO). During her 34 years, Lizette has worked in several Human Resource areas such as staffing and labor relations as well as being the administrative officer for the state of TN.
